SECTION 3 — WEEKS 2–4: ROLE INTEGRATION

3.1 First Deliverable Expectations

By the end of Week 2, your manager will assign your first formal deliverable. 'Good' looks like:

- Delivered on or before agreed deadline with no follow-up reminders needed
- Meets the brief as defined in the task description and 1:1 discussion
- Documented clearly enough that a peer could review or take over
- Proactively flagged any blockers before the deadline — not after
- Any assumptions made are explicitly stated, not silently embedded

3.2 30-Day Check-In Meeting with HR

At the end of your first month, you will have a 30-minute structured check-in with Sana Mirza (HR Manager). Your direct manager will also attend. Below is the standard agenda:

Time	Agenda Item	Owner
0–5 min	Welcome & housekeeping	HR Manager
5–15 min	Employee check-in: How are you settling in?	Employee
15–25 min	Progress against 30-day probation goals	Employee + Manager
25–35 min	Blockers, support gaps, and resource needs	Employee
35–45 min	Feedback from manager and team	Manager
45–55 min	Updated goals for Days 31–90 (probation period)	HR + Manager
55–60 min	Q&A and next steps	HR Manager

3.3 Probation Goals — Setting, Documenting & Reviewing

Your probation period is 3 months. Probation goals are set collaboratively between you and your manager within the first 5 business days of joining.

- Goals are documented in the HRMS (NexoHR Core) under your employee profile
- Goals must be specific, time-bound, and signed off by both you and your manager
- A mid-probation review is held at the 6-week mark (informal, with your manager)
- Formal probation review happens at the end of Month 3 with HR present
- Satisfactory completion results in confirmation of employment; extension or termination decisions are communicated in writing
- During probation, either party may terminate employment with 7 days' written notice

3.4 How to Ask for Help — Escalation Path

Type of Blocker	First Contact	Escalate To If Unresolved
